Digital Resume Box (part of Ekana Mart Pvt. Ltd.) is a unique new generation job portal that helps you to have a quicker, more efficient job search. Job Portal is a platform that joins recruiters and the job seekers to complete their goals and requirements. Recruiters look for a right candidate who has the right qualification to handle the responsibilities efficiently. On the other hand job seekers want a job where they can apply their skills and knowledge to grow their professional career. Sending job applications through employment portals is a quicker way to get the right candidate. We are going in 2020 but we still use the old pattern of recruitment which we use in 1980 where candidate carrying the hard copy of resume. Digital Resume Box is provide resume on cloud, now you no need to carry hard copy for interview.

Doing it is free!

Many people might not openly state it but money is indeed a valuable resource. People work hard to earn their money and they try their best to look for ways to minimize their expenditure. Posting your resume online is great mainly because it is something which allows you to gain so much visibility as well as contacts and that too all for free.

Save Time

Building your resume online saves time as creating each resume from scratch can be really time consuming and tiresome. Time saved will be better spent on networking or getting the training and education one needs to succeed. Just add your personal information to one of the industry-specific templates and make a great resume in minutes.

Instant Customization

Most experts agree that the resume should be updated on a regular basis and tailor-made for each new position you apply for. With a Digital Resume Box, you can save as many copies of the resume as you'd like and customize them when required.

Flexible

Find a mistake on your resume? Forget to add a prior employer? In the dark ages of the paper CV, this would have meant going back to the computer and wasting more of your precious "eggshell" or "toasted-ivory" resume paper. With an online CV it's simply a matter of a couple clicks, and you can even do it from your phone.

It's printable

- For those employers who prefer paper resumes, or if you'd just like to have a few hardcopies on hand when you go out for interviews, you can always print out your online resume and bring it with you.
- The fact is, a digital resume has everything a traditional resume has, but with so many added benefits you'd be crazy not to have one. There are tons of excellent digital resume service out there, so look around. They're easy to create, maintain and edit, and they'll do wonders for your job prospects.

Instantly accessible

- There are Several (advantages) to creating a digitalresume. In Every Companies) by themselves are increasing their use of online services because they offer significant cost savings over traditional hiring methods. As such, many industries and government organizations will now specifically ask job seekers to post their resumes online in a specific format (e.g., MS Word, HTML, or PDF), either by uploading them from another location or recreating them on their website.
- However, the main advantage of digital resumes is that they are instant; sending a resume through the mail is likely to take days, and if a company needs to hire someone fast, or are looking for temporary or freelance work, they're unlikely to go to the trouble to post an advertisement, wait for resumes to arrive, and then sort through them. Companies will instead be looking for a Instant solution and having an online resume immediately opens up these avenues to you.

Employer Task Completion

▶ Digital Resume Box are always motivated to complete each and every task you give them in a short time and efficiently. They are great for deadlines. In addition, you can hire someone who is an expert in their industry. There's no better person to trust when it comes down to the line like this.
